Students are responsible for adhering to District Administrative Procedure 5510, the Student Code of Conduct, and in Distance Education courses particularly to the following components of AP 5510. Following the principles of respect, honesty, integrity, and compliance with rules and regulations essential to the District mission, students shall:

See Administrative Procedure 4020 Program and Curriculum Development

Publication of Course Standards