

	issue under discussion is a direct 10+1 issue or related...
5. Bring to the Academic Senate (via the Academic Senate officers and not solely through Academic Senate representatives to governance councils) any new initiative/program impacting academic and professional matters before tasking other administrative offices and/or governance councils with discussion, to collaborate on how best to engage all constituencies and stakeholder voices in developing recommendations, starting immediately.	As part of the regular bi-weekly check-ins between senate officers & presid initiatives and programs will be discussed, and there will be an opportunity to collectively decide next steps for participatory governance (may go to AS + governance council, or just one or other or something else depending on nature of initiative or program).	Prepare agendas in advance of check-ins.

6.Co-

and/or one of the governance councils, which meet only once a month for two hours. This Task Force would be charged with:
8. Take action on the January 6, 2021 Academic Senate letter to you, and provide us your response by the end of April 2021.	President Nguyen apologized for not responding to the January 6 letter, and explained that the intention was to ask the Dean of Equity to take charge of this response, and then there were transition issues, and no new dean yet. On April 5, President Nguyen met with CORE students to discuss the ask in the AS letter to convene a meeting of all recipients of the student letter, and CORE agreed this would be good to do before the end of the year. A meeting has been scheduled for June 4, and AS + CS + governance tri-chairs have been invited. Once the new Dean of Equity is on board, they will be tasked with responding to the remaining asks of the letter.

9. Take initiative and leadership in repairing relationships with faculty and rebuilding a climate of trust and collaboration starting right away and ongoing into the future.

President Nguyen and the Cabinet agreed that they were committed to rebuilding a climate of trust and collaboration and that they look forward to

