3. There was a minor change to the agenda, a request from ASFC to bring to the Academic Senate the nominations for faculty commencement speaker. Cormia first and Frankel second moved to accept the modification, the agenda as modified was approved by consensus.

The minutes from April 25th were approved by consensus (Ellen Judd first and Milissa Carey second).

4. Every 30 days the Academic Senate must have a reaffirmation of remote meetings under AB

Kerri shared that the first two questions are a starting point, and asked must a candidate have that experience, and what experiences might be important (for example, social justice)? Janie Garcia commented that these questions could be very helpful in the process of creating interview questions. Carolyn commented that just because a candidate had been a college clarify which qualities that brings, and we should be specific about that. Donna commented on the need for the President (candidate) to have made sound hiring decisions in the past. Kimberly commented that the questions as worded should be able (possible) to pull dif
