

DRAFT

DRAFT

Another student leader highlighted the violence against Palestinians in Gaza and the occupation of territories.

A student continued to support the resolution by reading from a social justice statement and addressing students' historical oppression.

An advocate from the college community argued for equity, dismantling

DRAFT

