

A

Authors: Jozephine Yen, Priya V., Negar Bagheri, Joshua Contreras

A A

, the current governance structure includes and enfranchises students in all of the councils, workgroups, study groups, and task forces through voting positions;

, the governance handbook states that the responsibility

students of

governance also have occupations outside of governance, yet are still afforded a chair position;

, students have not only kept up attendance at governance, but actively participated and voted;

, the exclusion of students from the tri-chair position in 2018 and how it impacted years" in a Governance Assessment memo sent on April 7th, 2021;

B

quad-chair position and be structurally included in governance in this manner;

, the SFC remains in alignment with and supportive of the question asked by President Thuy in the April 7th Governance Assessment memo;

