

April 10, 2020

Dear Colleagues,

You can always tell the true character and spirit of an organization by its performance during times of crisis. We can safely say that the faculty and staff of Foothill College have proven that we are innovative, empathetic, and student-centered to the very core. Our work is being recognized nationally and statewide, and many colleges are looking to us for advice and ideas.

The work completed over the past five weeks has been nothing short of remarkable3dwe

Development Coordinator for Instructional Development. In her role with the CVC-OEI, she provided training and professional development to support the effective use of digital tools and platforms for the 114 California Community Colleges. Her work with @ONE, the professional development division of CVC-OEI, contributed to @ONE becoming a nationally recognized leader in online teaching and learning.

Before her work with @ONE, Lené taught writing and communication courses for colleges throughout Northern California, including Foothill, Cañada, CSU
