

Person 1

Counseling positions were ranked in the top three because of the need for counselors. The program reviews for counseling and ALD were outdated, but the need for counselors was clear based on other program reviews (such as History, English and Child Development). History (ranked 5): PDLs and reassigned time have depleted the History department. English (ranked 4): Decreased ratio of FT faculty over next two years is a concern especially with retirements and the need for basic skill instructors who are FT

Person 2

I agree that hiring in either ESL or PE at this point is not logical. I would hope that in some of these positions

