instructor meet minimum qualifications. They do give faculty the opportunity to offer instruction that they might later offer as credit curriculum.

Foothill has the opportunity to join this nation-wide consortium to deliver Not-for-Credit instruction to corporations across the nation. If our "courses" are picked up and taught in multiple locations, we would basically be able to collect "royalties". Contact the Workforce Development Office if you'd like more info about these efforts.

This bill has passed the Senate and just had its first read in the Assembly on May 30. It would require CCC/CSU/UCs to develop online offerings to be placed in a "California Virtual Campus". We (Foothill/CCCs) would be required to give local college credit to students who successfully completed courses via the CA Virtual Campus and passed an exam. Although we already award credit for selected
