	use a successful grade from a De Anza course (after failing the course at FH) and using that grade on the FH transcript to replace the poor grade here. Discussion and clarification. De Anza has made the decision to discontinue the practice of red-lining. Perhaps FH should consider red-lining through a petitions process? Holcroft suggested to have a general policy stating that under normal circumstances, the rule is no. If there is a course that is no longer offered, faculty in the discipline could review it. Carolyn will draft up some language to review at the next meeting.
