

Approved January 17, 2012

being 4 units it would then meet the entire area requirement, thereby not requiring the student to take an additional course to meet the requirement for that area.