

, 1, 01

that the four proposed families are quite distinct; recalled that the state has given the districts local control over course families. LaManque noted that we don't seek CCCCO approval of course families but it is something on which we could be audited. Question regarding potential consequences of an audit— LaManque noted that other colleges have been asked to pay back money, related to an audit of course families.

Motion to approve / (Francisco, Anderson). .

